Technical document

Product name
Mudventure Leash

Market entry date
1.8.2022

General description of the product
Dog leash

Product features that are important for assessing safety
When choosing the materials and structures of the product, special attention has been paid to their durability and safety.
The tensile strength of the product has been tested.

Information to show that the product is safe
The product does not pose a danger to the consumer or the dog under normal conditions of use.
The tensile strength of the leash has been tested under laboratory conditions according to standard SFS-EN ISO 13934- 1, and it meets the leash strength requirements defined by Hurtta.

Ways to eliminate/reduce risks
Regularly check the product for signs of wear and tear, and replace it if any parts are damaged. The broken product must be repaired by the professional or replaced with a new product.

The effect that other products can have that are used together with the product
Carefully check that the product you intend to use together with the Hurtta product is safe, compatible and does not cause harm to the Hurtta product.

Guidance needed
Children and vulnerable consumers require guidance and supervision when using the product.

Manufacturer and brand owner
Best Friend Group Oy, Kellonkierto 3, 70460 Kuopio, Finland
https://hurtta.com/en/pages/hello